Top 10
Things I wish I knew earlier concerning financing college.

By: Cordaro Shaw
The importance of applying for scholarships as soon as possible!
The significance paying the housing reservation fee by the deadline.
The importance of limiting spending or budgeting money.
The seriousness of applying for the FAFSA early.
The significance of taking advantage of student discounts.
The importance of handling annual finances at the beginning of the school year.
The significance of applying for work study.
Easy money can be made by re-selling your textbooks to the bookstore and textbook websites.
Using public transportation will save you a lot of money as oppose to driving.
Student loans are not free!