FACT BOOK

MOREHOUSE

Institutional Data Reference for the Morehouse Community

The Office of Data Analytics, Institutional Research and Effectiveness (DIRE) serves as a clearinghouse for current and historical statistical information about various facets of Morehouse. Our primary responsibilities are collecting, analyzing, and reporting data from various sources about students, faculty, and staff supporting institutional planning and decision-making. DIRE is also responsible for mandatory reporting to federal, state, and other external agencies and supports the College's accreditation review cycles.

Published by DIRE, the Fact Book is a static compilation of the most recent data reported externally. This publication contains data on student admissions statistics, enrollment, demographics, majors, retention and graduation rates, degree completions, faculty information, facilities, financial aid, and finances. It is distributed to members of the Morehouse community to serve as a comprehensive source of key institutional data answering the most frequent questions and supporting planning and evaluation.

Morehouse adjusted operational and educational processes in response to the COVID-19 global pandemic, some of which impacted the data reported in this year's Fact Book. Most metrics, data definitions, and reporting methodologies remain consistent. The footnotes explain adjustments in the few cases where data is reported differently.

The latest version of the Fact Book, which includes updates and corrections, is posted on DIRE's website.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

We proudly present the 2022-2023 Fact Book- an all-encompassing manual to our annual institutional facts, which is now available in digital and print formats. This comprehensive publication provides all the necessary information at your fingertips, covering various aspects, including admissions, enrollment, academics, completion rates, and finances.

Morehouse's trajectory towards sustainable advancement is evident in the Fact Book. Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, Morehouse successfully transitioned to online classes and with this success came an evolution of Morehouse Online in AY 2021-22. This development has greatly expanded access to our highly sought-after bachelor's degree program, providing men with essential skills to become influential community leaders, successful professionals, and esteemed global citizens. The online program enrolled 222 men in its first year, and we are proud to share that this number has since increased to 314 men as of fall 2022. In the fall of 2022, the College had a slight increase in new student enrollment. The number of full-time, first-year students reached 671, a bit higher than the previous year's enrollment of 619. Our total registered headcount was 2,567, and the full-time equivalent (FTE) was 2,335. Georgia accounted for almost thirty percent of the student body, while California, Illinois, Maryland, and Texas also had a significant number of enrolled students. Our student-to-faculty ratio of 10:1 has remained low despite an increase in student numbers. Our team of 250+ faculty includes 57 percent full-time staff, and nearly 60 percent tenured faculty. Between July 2021 and June 2022, Morehouse awarded a total of 464 degrees, comprising 339 Bachelor of Arts, 123 Bachelor of Science, and two (2) Bachelor of Science General Studies.

As a renowned educational institution with a rich history of promoting social impact, the College is dedicated to nurturing disciplined men who will lead lives of service and leadership while upholding the history and culture of Black people. In addition to Morehouse Online, the College has launched several initiatives, such as the Black Men's Research Institute, "Morehouse in the Metaverse", and a $500 million dollar capital campaign. The capital campaign "Making Men of Consequence", aims to promote societal advancement and produce world leaders who can effectively tackle the challenges of the digital age.

Aligning with Morehouse's 2021-2026 Strategic Plan, we are thrilled to announce the new partnership between Morehouse College's Andrew Young Center for Global Leadership (AYCGL) and USAID. This five-year agreement, made possible through USAID's Minority Serving Institutions Partnership Initiative, presents exciting opportunities for the men of Morehouse. Our students can now explore more career options, receive mentorship, and access training pathways to pursue a USAID Foreign Service role or a career in international development. Furthermore, this partnership allows USAID to collaborate on research with AYCGL regarding international social justice movements, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (DEIA) learning, and recruitment. The partnership will focus on shared interests and expertise in conflict resolution, climate change, and peacebuilding.

Morehouse offers numerous growth opportunities to our students, including partnerships with corporations, scholarships, post-graduate study options, early learning programs, job placement services, and global learning experiences. An example of such opportunities is the collaboration between the Ida B. Wells Society for Investigative Reporting and the Journalism in Sports, Culture, & Social Justice department in February 2023. This partnership will provide students with valuable advice and mentorship on ethical journalism careers, with a focus on investigative and social justice reporting. Additionally, English and Journalism majors at Morehouse College can take advantage of a scholarship endowed by PBS NewsHour Anchor Geoff Bennett.

Established in 1867, Morehouse College is the only institution in the US solely dedicated to educating men of color. Today, it is known as a highly esteemed liberal arts college that produces the most Rhodes Scholars among all Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) and the most Black men who earn doctorates. Morehouse's exceptional curriculum, experienced faculty, and student-centered approach empower scholars and leaders committed to serving their communities. The College's legacy as a thought leader in social justice issues makes it vital in creating a more equitable world.

We welcome you to delve into this publication and discover how Morehouse utilizes education to make a difference.

Note: 12-month enrollment reflects an unduplicated headcount from the summer, fall, and spring terms and provides a composite of the annual enrollment. Instructional activity represents the total number of credit hours all students are engaged in during the 12 months. The full-time equivalent (FTE) is a single value providing a meaningful combination of full-time and part-time students. IPEDS has two calculations for FTE, one using fall student headcounts and the other using 12-month instructional activity. Fall FTE is calculated using the IPEDS definition full-time + (part-time * 0.392857). 12-Month FTE is calculated by dividing the instructional activity by 30. 2020-21 instructional activity declined slightly, reflecting the impact of the Coronavirus pandemic..

Note: Students earn two bachelor's degrees through the Dual Degree Engineering Program (DDEP) – one degree from Morehouse and one degree from one of fourteen participating engineering schools. In Banner, students coded as Pre-Engineering majors are counted as General Science (DDEP) majors, Pre-Psychology majors are counted as Psychology majors, and Pre-Cinema, Television & Emerging Media Studies (CTEMS) are counted as CTEMS majors. First-time, first-year students, are classified as 1st-time freshmen, admitted in the fall semester of the noted year, and all classifications (to account for students that earned college credit during high school). Other first-year students are classified as freshmen, excluding 1st-time freshmen, and including transfer, continuing, and returning student-types.

A close-up photograph of a person wearing a white dress shirt and a black necktie. The person is also wearing a black face mask. On the left side of the chest, the word "Morehouse" is embroidered in a red, cursive script. The person's hands are clasped in front of them, and a black wristwatch with a red dot is visible on their left wrist. The background is blurred, showing another person in a blue shirt.

In Banner, students coded as Pre-Engineering majors are counted as General Science (DDEP) majors and Pre-Psychology majors are counted as Psychology majors. First-time, first-year students, are classified as 1st-time freshmen, admitted in the fall semester of the noted year, and all classifications (to account for students that earned college credit during high school).

CENTERS + INSTITUTES

ANDREW YOUNG CENTER FOR GLOBAL LEADERSHIP

The Andrew Young Center for Global Leadership encompasses four interdependent institutes: Institute for Research, Civic Engagement, and Policy; Leadership Studies Program; Institute for International and Experiential Education; and Social Justice Inquiry and Praxis. Each institute is designed to provide institutional, national, and international leadership in the examination and generation of solutions for global challenges, the study of social justice-based leadership, social justice activism training, and the development of social change agents, and co-curricular experiences designed to prepare students for lives as global citizens and leaders.

BONNER OFFICE OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Bonner Office of Community Service encourages a culture of service, encouraging Men of Morehouse to be accountable leaders with the desire to steward positive social change. Committed to Morehouse's mission, the Bonner Office provides infrastructure and support for students, faculty, and staff to receive training and learn best practices to support the design, implementation, and assessment of community impact interventions. The Bonner Office also supports faculty in implementing service-learning in their courses while providing servant leadership to community partners via community service scholarship programs.

BRISBANE INSTITUTE

The Brisbane Institute seeks to connect students to politics and political science beyond the classroom. Through internships, collaborative faculty-student research opportunities, and guest speakers, the Brisbane institute affirms Morehouse College's commitment to investigating the most relevant questions in Black politics at the local and national levels.

ISTEM-XE

The Innovative Science Technology, Engineering and Mathematics Explore project engages rising 6th, 7th, and 8th-grade minority students in a three-year STEM technology program that includes a four-week summer program, hands-on field experience, and Saturday Academy during the academic year. The program uses a project-based framework designed to provide students with challenging technological learning experiences. The project exposes students to innovation and creativity in STEM disciplines within the context of real-world problem-solving scenarios using entrepreneurial concepts to promote academic success in middle and high school and prepare students academically to attend a college or university.

OFFICE OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

The Office of Health Professions advises and assists students in preparing for careers in the health professions. Services help increase the awareness of pre-health professions, improve performance on standardized entrance exams into health professional schools, and assist students with all aspects of the application process to pre-health professions schools.

PUBLIC HEALTH SCIENCES INSTITUTE

The Public Health Sciences Institute supports and trains students, diversifying the public health workforce with culturally competent, well-trained minority students. PHSI was created under a cooperative agreement with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in 1988. Services include building public health career awareness and individualized career counseling.

CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

The Center for Excellence in Education is focused on social justice, educational excellence, equity, and ethical leadership. Utilizing an interdisciplinary design allows students to customize their area of study by selecting the courses, programs, and activities that align with their career interests. Services prepare students to teach, explore, innovate, and lead with excellence. Programs range from educator preparation focuses on producing educators that become policymakers, researchers, innovators, and leaders equipped to revolutionize education.

INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP CENTER

The Innovation and Entrepreneurship Center connect education with student leadership development and community-focused resources and support. All programs and services are focused on increasing small business development. This is accomplished through industry-certified process improvement training; mentorship with prime contractors for project bid development; community resources to access information, services, and options for business start-up support; technical assistance to other historically Black and minority-serving institutions (HBCUs/MIs); research, consultative and program services to government agencies, corporations, and universities seeking to expand their small business supplier pool; and education and outreach to encourage college students and youth to consider entrepreneurship as a career choice.

Note: The IPEDS retention rate is based on individuals from the prior year's first-time, full-time cohort that return the subsequent fall semester. The 1st to 2nd-year retention rate serves as the College's official rate for the indicated reporting year. The adjusted cohort is used for calculating the retention rate. The adjusted cohort represents the number of remaining students from the cohort after the deduction of students who left the institution for any of the following reasons: died or were totally and permanently disabled; to serve in the armed forces (including those called to active duty); to serve with a foreign aid service of the Federal Government (e.g., Peace Corps); or to serve on official church missions. Blanked-out spaces indicate data is not available.

Note: IPEDS survey components collect a "snapshot" of an institution's conferrals between July 01- June 30. The fiscal year 2020-21 is the most recent graduation data reported to IPEDS. Completers represent the unduplicated headcount of men receiving a degree. Awards represent a duplicated headcount and include 1st and 2nd majors, or all credentials awarded. Revisions made to the IPEDS Prior Year Revision System are not reflected in reported data available in the IPEDS Data Center.

A photograph of the Morehouse College entrance. In the foreground, there is a large, white, rectangular sign with the words "MOREHOUSE" in a large, red, serif font and "COLLEGE" in a smaller, red, serif font below it. The sign is partially obscured by a dense bed of red and white flowers. Behind the sign, a multi-story brick building with a prominent central tower and several smaller towers is visible. The building has large windows and is surrounded by green trees. A street lamp is visible near the sign. The sky is clear and blue.

MEMORIALS/MAIN CAMPUS AREAS

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. INTERNATIONAL CHAPEL (31A)

The Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel serves as the "living room" of historic Morehouse College. The Chapel seeks to develop and promote clergy, laity and youth awakening through reconciliation, non-violence, science, spirituality and the building of global "communities of hope." The Chapel is the world's most prominent religious memorial to alumnus Martin Luther King Jr. '48.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. STATUE (33)

The King Statue, located on the King Chapel plaza, is the only statue in the state of Georgia honoring Martin Luther King Jr. '48. It was dedicated in May 1984 and has become the photo opportunity hotspot for thousands of campus visitors.

INTERNATIONAL HALL OF HONOR (31A)

The International Hall of Honor, located in the Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel, honors persons from the 20th and 21st centuries who have made significant contributions to civil and human rights.

BENJAMIN ELIJAH MAYS NATIONAL MEMORIAL (7)

Dr. Benjamin Elijah Mays was laid to rest on the Morehouse campus in 1984. A memorial in honor of Mays is on the College's Century Campus, site of Morehouse's Commencement exercises.
